

A Wild Walk to School

Rebecca Cobb

BOOK TALK CARDS

ABOUT THE BOOK

It's time to walk to school and mum wants the children to get there on time. But what Mum doesn't realise is that the hill is in fact the tummy of a sleeping giant and it's important to tread carefully when the floor turns to lava! It's just as well Mum has these two Brave Explorers with her.

OUR THOUGHTS

"A charming, fanciful tale with a warm, humorous feel and lovely imaginative touches. Great sharing read."

TIME TO TALK

- 1 The girls loved going to school because they enjoyed the journey. What do you enjoy about school the most? What is the most exciting part of your journey?
- 2 The girls have a good breakfast for energy. What food do you eat for breakfast, so that you won't get tired and have energy for the day?
- 3 Why do you think mum can't find the school reading books? Does your mum sort out your school bag or do you do it yourself? Why are the girls still playing when it's time to go to school?
- 4 What dangerous things happen to the girls on the way to school? Why is mum not concerned? What do you think she might be thinking of?
- 5 Who else has the same adventure to school as the two girls?
- 6 What things does mum worry about that the two girls don't seem to care about?
- 7 How did the girls show that they were brave and fearless? What things have you done to show that you are brave and fearless?
- 8 Do you think mum will be okay walking home on her own? Why do the girls say that her journey to work must be boring?
